

Internship in Logistics Department

Flybrokers Aviation Group - a company operating in the aviation industry - is looking for ambitious, intelligent and enthusiastic students with advanced knowledge of English and Russian languages. We are offering an internship in the logistics department of the international company specializing in aircraft maintenance and aircraft spare parts supply. In case of productive cooperation during an internship, there exists a strong possibility of permanent employment.

What we offer:

- a one-month internship with an option of prolongation
- experience of work in international business environment
- experience of work in the aviation industry
- flexible schedule
- possibility of permanent employment with the company (even after one month of internship)

What we require:

- advanced English
- advanced Russian
- accuracy
- good self-organization
- good knowledge of Excel
- ability to work in an international team
- ability to learn quickly

Please send your CV in English to the following email address:
serafima.h@flybrokers.com

We kindly inform that we will contact only selected candidates.